Backpropagation algorithm (Without using TensorFlow, Keras, or PyTorch)

- This algorithm is amongst the most basic neural networks-based machine learning algorithm, which tries capturing all the key features of a given dataset in terms of interconnecting weights.